SUNSHINE FOUNDATION VISITS

By Ron & Doretta Scott

Ron and Doretta Scott worked together with the Sunshine Foundation this year to give 4 families wonderful Christmas gifts from our South Jersey Region.

The first young lady (no photo), Madisen, 11 years old from Landisville, was visited by Ron and Tyler Chin on Monday, December 14th. Madisen's mom gave us both hugs and was very appreciative for the tree and the gift cards. Madisen was very shy so we did not push for pictures.

Zoe, age 8 lived in the Villas. She and her family could definitely use the gift cards. They were very nice and thanked us over and over.

Jonathan, age 12 is from Egg Harbor. He and his family kept saying they could not believe our car club would do something like this for them. Jonathan actually yelled out the front door, thank you, as we were getting into our car. He was really cute.

Tyra, age 12 is from Bear, Delaware. Ron and Doretta together with Marge and Larry Irwin, went to visit this 4th family. Tyra and her family were thrilled. Tyra gave us all hugs and loved the tree and cards. She and her two siblings are being raised by her grand parents, who definitely benefited by our gift.

Each family received $200 of gift cards from our club.

Doretta and I have been involved with the Sunshine Foundation for many years, but it still brings us tears of joy seeing how much these families appreciate the generosity of our club at Christmas.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to this worthy cause this year.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Terry Shelton

Hello Everyone!

I would like to take the time to introduce myself to all of our long time members and to our newest members.

Terry Shelton—I have been a member of the South Jersey Region AACA for the last 16 years. Also, I am very fond of Fords, mostly Ford Trucks, A's & T's.

If I can help anyone, please feel free to let me know. I hope in serving as President I can do as good of a job as our past presidents have done. So we can continue to have fun with our cars and friends as we always do.

Also, Ron Scott and I are looking forward to working with everyone to just have fun with our cars and see many new places with our members.

The meeting was called to order by President Terry Shelton at 7:03 pm. All stood for the flag salute and pledge of allegiance. There were no new members or guests. Terry noted that Vice President, Ron Scott's mother has been ill and this is why he was unable to attend tonight's meeting. Linda McFarland also reported that Marvin Chin was also not feeling well and wanted to say hello to everyone.

Chuck Gibson then made a motion that we cover the President's expenses for the Annual Meeting in Philadelphia next month. The motion was approved. He also made a motion that the club give the AACA Library Endowment Fund $500 which will be presented by Terry at the President's Dinner in Philadelphia. This motion was also approved.

Since Ron & Doretta Scott were not in attendance, Larry Irwin reported on the Sunshine Foundation Visits. Larry & Marge together with Ron & Doretta visited one of the family's in Bear Delaware.

2018 ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The South Jersey Region's annual Christmas Party was held at the Paulsboro Sportsman Club this year.

We started off the evening with Ray & Linda McFarland handing over the baton to the new President and First Lady, Terry Shelton and Miriam Willis.

Our music for the evening was handled by DJ Pepper Paul who did a fabulous job of keeping everyone dancing. The food was catered by the Italian Kitchen and everyone had a wonderful time.

Door prizes were purchased by Janet Erdner, who was under the weather this evening and Bonnie Green and Miriam Willis made sure that all was in order for the party in Janet's absence.

The evening was a great success and as you can see by the photos, we all had a great time.

A big thank you to everyone who helped make this evening a great success.

Additional photos can be viewed on our website siraaca.com.

THE SENTIMENTAL TOUR

November 5-9, 2018

Natchez, Mississippi

Sponsored by: Louisiana Region for cars 1928-1958

Article and Photos by Linda McFarland

Gonna take a sentimental journey
Gonna set my heart at ease
Gonna make a sentimental journey
To renew old memories.

Sunday November 4th

Ray and I traveled to Mississippi with Barbara Fraser (Ray's sister) and Terry Shelton and Miriam Willis. We trailered our 2 Model A's in our trailer and arrived in Mississippi on Saturday, November 3rd.

There were several pre-tour places for us to visit. Ray and I visited the Natchez experience museum directly across the street from the hotel. The hospitality room manned by our hosts, the Louisiana region AACA, provided us with such a variety of items including meatballs and sandwiches and snacks for lunch so most of us just stayed in for lunch.

We had a lovely opening banquet at Bowie's Restaurant where they served an assortment of food of the local area i.e. gumbo, jambalaya along with some regular assortment of dishes.

Charlie Froehlich introduced the Mayor of Natchez who welcomed us to his city and then Charlie introduced Earl Beauchamp the originator of the AACA Sentimental Tour. Earl gave us a brief history of how the tour originated. Charlie then spoke regarding the week ahead.

Monday November 5th

We visited the Stanton Hall and the Longwood mansions that were owned by cotton plantation owners. This is really beautiful touring in the Southland of hoop skirts and mansions

We enjoyed a box lunch at the Jefferson Military College where there was a museum about the boys military school. The curator gave a short talk about the college during the civil war.

After lunch we traveled a few miles to the First Presbyterian church of Natchez Historic Photographs exhibit was housed. There were hundreds of beautiful antique photographs of Natchez and her people from past years.

We ended this day after 26 total miles. It was a lovely day to tour.

Linda McFarland at the Delta Music Museum

Natchez

where the

Frogmore Plantation

Tuesday November 6th

Today we started our tour with a visit to the Delta Music Museum just over the bridge in Ferriday, Louisiana, the birthplace of Jerry Lee Lewis (Great Balls of Fire), Mickey Gilley, Rev. Jimmy Swaggart and commentator Howard K. Smith. The museum celebrates the accomplishments of these men together with many other music celebrities.

Our next stop was the Frogmore Cotton Plantation and Gins. We were shown a very interesting movie of how cotton is harvested now with all its mechanical machines and then given a tour of the historic outbuildings that have been preserved which replicate life on the cotton plantation in the 1700's and 1800's prior to the modern machines that harvest the cotton now.

Lunch was at a local reception hall where we enjoyed a bowl of the Louisiana Gumbo with chicken and sausage, potato salad and sweet potato, made especially for our group by a local chef. After lunch we were free to tour some of the local areas.

This evening the Tour included an all you can eat ice cream social from 7-8 pm.

Wednesday, November 7th

Today we checked out of the Natchez Hampton and traveled with all of our luggage in the Model A to Vicksburg via the Natchez Trace Parkway. We managed to get everything in the back seat and still leave enough room for Barbara, Rays sister.

We got on the Natchez Trace Parkway just 2.5 miles from the hotel. Our first stop was at Emerald Mound, the second largest Indian Mound in the USA.

Our next stop was Rocky Springs which also was our Lunch stop where we enjoyed a great box lunch. Due to the slight rain, most of us ate in our cars. We then went up to see what was once the 1860's town Rocky Springs. We walked what had been the actual trace road to Rocky Springs. The only building still standing was a little church and cemetery. The church still has services once a month. We then traveled another 24 miles on the trace to exit the Parkway and head for Vicksburg another 25 miles away. We traveled approximately 106 miles today. Dinner tonight is on our own but the Hampton is providing us with a wine and beer reception this evening.

The Vicksburg National Military Park

Thursday November 8th.

Today started out very rainy. Our first stop was the Vicksburg National Military Park. We decided it was best to ride the route around the park and hopefully the rain would subside before going into town. It was a good idea since by the time we finished the park route the rain had stopped.

Sentimental Tour (Continued)

We finished up the National Military Park with the Union's gunboat, USS Cairo Museum. The Cairo was the first vessel sunk by an electrically detonated torpedo mine during the war of 1862.

The gunboat was raised from the river in the 1960's and was amazingly preserved because of the silt at the River bottom.

We found a lovely place for lunch as it was getting late. Lunch on the 10th floor of an old bank building.

Great views of the Yazoo River at "10 South Rooftop Bar & Grill".

Some of the group visited the Old Courthouse Museum and others went to the Old Depot Museum.

Vicksburg is a lovely quaint town.

This afternoon around 3 pm a local Vicksburg car enthusiast named Pat Cashman and wife Barbara has opened their garage to show our group his 16 car collection. He has also offered to help with any repairs that anyone may have since he has lifts and tools available.

This evening we once again enjoyed a wine, beer and snack reception put on by the Hampton.

Visiting Cashman Collection

Friday, November 9th.

Today we left Vicksburg to follow the Great River Road to Natchez.

Our first stop was the Grand Gulf Military Park. There was a very nice museum and several outbuildings. We also enjoyed a coffee break with hot coffee and donuts. The coffee was welcomed as it was raining off and on and quite cold. It never got above 48 degrees all day.

There was a huge fireplace in the open pavilion where we had our coffee and donuts. Everyone warmed themselves in front of the fire.

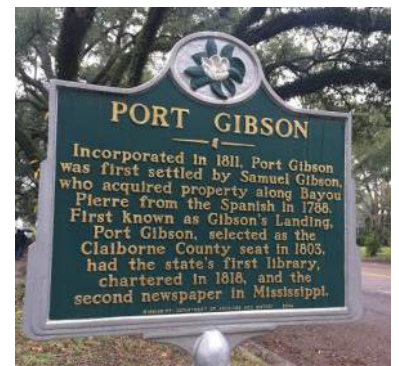

Our next stop was Port Gibson "The City too beautiful to Burn" as per General Grant. The town of Port Gibson were thrilled to have us visit their several historic buildings.

We then traveled 2 miles away to the Claiborne County Multi Purpose Center where we enjoyed a very nice lunch.

After lunch many visited the Alcorn State University and the Ruins of Windsor. Alcorn is America's oldest historically black land-grant institution. Windsor was a magnificent antebellum home built in 1860 that burned in 1890. We then traveled back to Natchez and readied for the closing Banquet.

The closing banquet was in the beautiful Hotel Vue overlooking the Mississippi River.

We had a lovely dinner of local dishes including catfish and crawfish bisque and much more with delicious pecan pie for dessert. Charlie Frolich was the master of ceremony with the help of Chuck Crane and Marty Roth. Of course Earl Beauchamp definitely had a part in the program.

Awards were given for Oldest Driver (83), Youngest Driver (36), Oldest Car 1928 HupMobile, Ladies Choice and Hard Luck awards.

Those who have attended 5 Sentimental tours and those who have attended every Sentimental Tour were recognized with a special certificate.

It was a lovely closing banquet and was the perfect ending to a wonderful tour.

Thank you to the Louisiana Region for all their hard work.

Ray & Linda McFarland, Barbara Fraser, Miriam Willis and Terry Shelton

and Auto Editors of Consumer Guide)

With permission from Publications International, Ltd.

Last Month we began this timeline starting with a 1770 steam powered artillery tractor to an 1894 Electrobat motor car.

The Stanley Steamer Company starts production in the spring of 1898.

Thomas B. Jeffery builds his first auto that will evolve into the Rambler, 1898.

(Alexander) Winston Motor Carriage Company enters production and sells 22 autos in 1898.

Earle C. Anthony, at 17 years of age, builds a crude electric runabout. Later opens one of the world's first gasoline stations, 1898.

General Electric and Waverly Electric enters the auto industry 1898

John Wilkinson builds an air cooled, four-cylinder engine with valve-in-head configuration, which leads to the motor used in Franklin motorcars.

The Porter Company's steam powered "perfect automobile" lasted only through 1900-1901.

In 1899 the Pittsburgh Motor Vehicle Company becomes the Autocar Company.

James Ward Packard constructs his first automobile and runs on November 6, 1899 in Warren, Ohio.

Production figures for 1899-1900: Columbia built 1500, Locomobile 750, Winston 100, Packard 49, Stanley 30, Stearns 20, Knox 15, Oldsmobile 11.

Packard introduced the first steering wheel to replace the usual tiller in 1900.

Introduced in 1899 as the American, the renamed Gasmobile appeared at the New York Auto Show in 1900, but left the auto scene in 1902, after about 140 examples had been produced. Features included an automatic starting device.

NEWS FROM NATIONAL

Waxing Nostalgic

Myron Smith

AACA Secretary/Treasurer

I recently read in the Yankton, SD newspaper that the NECCO candy company is going out of business. NECCO stands for the New England Confectionary Co. They are the makers of the nickel size candy wafers and had been around for 171 years. They also produced the little valentine hearts with the cute sayings printed on them. This got me to thinking about other candies from my childhood that I see no more. Things like Walnut Crush, Chuckles, Butter Brickle. The Walnut crush and Butter Brickle had unique tastes. I know nothing now that tastes like the Walnut Crush. The Butter Brickle is very similar to today's Heath Bar. Most of this candy came from Grandma and Grandpa. I especially remember Chuckles which were about 5 little blocks of candy in one wrapper and resembled larger square gum drops. Grandpa would bring them home from work at Goodyear in his lunch box, and since he had false teeth, I know he couldn't eat them.

This really has no bearing on cars other than that I was getting nostalgic about the fun things I enjoyed and took mostly for granted as a child that I see no more. I remember with fondness the 'Chevrolet Shows' which would occasionally come to town. Sometimes they would be in the city auditorium and sometimes in an inflatable tent bubble at a shopping center. They were fun and exciting to see the new and special offerings from Chevrolet. The traveling trucks were even special. I recall the Chevrolet semi- tractor even had whitewall tires and full wheel covers. Show day for the new cars, whatever the brand, was always close to being like Christmas. Dealers would cover the windows of the dealership the night before 'show day' so no one got a peak of the latest offering until it was show time.

I next got to thinking about what 'special' car things we had for our son, now 28, as he grew up. Gone was the Chevy traveling show and special show day for new cars. Were the swap meets we attended exciting enough as we searched for the next automotive treasure a suitable replacement? Or was there some other 'special event' we attended such as tours and AACA meets that we attended a replacement for the things in my memory. I don't know. He has the car bug. The closest thing I can think of right now is the recent phenomenon, called cars and coffee. In our area it is a 8:00 to 12:00 come and go show at a local auto museum. No trophies no classes just come and have fun. If you have not participated in one of these, check them out, and if possible take a young person with you. You might just be making a memory for their trip down nostalgia lane when they grow up.
